

Job Title: Environmental, Health, and Safety Manager - TX
Region

Req'd Education: 4 Year Degree

Company:

Req'd Experience: 3 to 5 years

Location: US-TX-Houston

Base Pay: $75,000 - $85,000 /Year

Employee Type: Full-Time

Apply Now >>

See ASSE Jobs Website for application requirements

Provides direct site support for implementation of corporate Environmental, Health, and Safety programs and risk management initiative. Manages EHS related risks and liability by interacting with operations directly on risk issues at the field level

Assist in developing business continuity plans for all sites

Support insurer loss prevention activities

Support development and implementation of corrective action solutions for insurer loss control recommendations

Support site/sector projects

Coordinate external EHS consultants

Respond to site requests for risk management aid

Develop annual EHS business support plans

Develop, implement, and maintain annual/monthly/weekly EHS site activity plans

Conduct risk review audits

Coordinate trend analyses reporting and provide corrective action support and/or solutions

Report weekly activities and programs and risk review summary reports

Provide and/or coordinate required and requested training

Interact with customers as needed

Support business development efforts

Manage individual operating costs

Support efforts to manage work-related injury and illness costs (coordinate with workers compensation)

Coordinate site emergency response activities