

A Member of the Tokio Marine Group

Position Title: Loss Control Consultant Trainee

Location: Addison, Texas

Description: This position will be a support to the loss control and underwriting staff. The trainee will contribute, under supervision, to surveys and service plan implementation. Responsibilities of this role may include but are not limited to:

- Conducts loss control surveys, analysis and develops recommendations for routine risks in a given product area.
- Documents fundamental facts and observations from routine loss control surveys.
- Learns from risk management and loss prevention programs in a given product area and applies knowledge to routine surveys.
- Supports and learns about relevant safety legislation and regulation as well as current loss experiences for a given product area.

Qualifications: Candidates for the Loss Control Trainee position should have a bachelors degree and 1-2 years business related or insurance related experience. Training for the role is provided.

Please send resumes to:

Amanda Muzi

Corporate Recruiter

amuzi@phlyins.com